Reports	Grace Farnham, Evan Friedman, Erica Ramos, and Isaac Schaidler were selected as National Hispanic Scholars by the College Board. The distinction is for students scoring in the top 2.5% of Hispanic and Latino students taking the 2016 Preliminary SAT/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT/NMSQT) in our region. Based their scores on the 2016 Preliminary SAT/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT/NMSQT), 39 students have been recognized by the National Merit Scholarship Corp. as

Commended Students. They were among the 50,000 highest scorers out of the 1.6 million U.S. students taking the test.

Marching Band won the title of grand champions/first place overall at the Geneseo Maple Leaf Classic Marching Band Competition. For the second year in a row the Huskies took first in every category: best winds, best percussion, best color guard, and best drum majors. In addition, at the 38th Annual Stagg Jamboree Marching Band Competition the Huskies took third overall. This was the first time in school history that Marching Band placed at the Stagg Jamboree.

A Place for All, the OPRF gay-straight alliance sponsored by Special Education teacher Amy Stanis and Wellness and Prevention Coordinator Ginger Colamussi, and Triton College's Common Ground were chosen to share the 2017 Founders Award from the Oak Park Area Lesbian and Gay Association (OPALGA).

English teacher and social-emotional learning coach Avi Lessing wrote the proposal that won OPRF a $25,000 Social-Emotional Learning Innovation Grant from the Rockefeller Foundation. The funds will be used to create a web-based app to develop better communication across a student's educator network. Only 28 out of 300 applicants received the grant.

The Business Office, led by Chief School Business Official Tod Altenburg, received ASBO International's 2016 Certificate of Excellence in Financial Reporting, which recognizes achieving high standards in financial reporting and accountability.

Reports were given on Administrative/Teacher Compensation Report, FOIA, Student Council activities, and IMAGINE OPRF.
